

Legislative Update

by Elizabeth J. Forster
Originally published in Employment Update (June 2014)

Elizabeth J. Forster represents employers, trade unions and employees. She has been involved in hearings before the Ontario Labour Relations Board, grievance arbitrations, collective agreement negotiations, Human Rights cases, and prosecutions under Occupational Health and Safety Act. Elizabeth's work also includes wrongful dismissal actions, actions for breach of fiduciary duties and other employment and employee issues as well as labour-related actions. She advises clients on employment contracts, employment policies, non-competition and confidentiality agreements and employee pension and benefit-related issues.

Elizabeth can be reached at 416.593.3919 or eforster@blaney.com.

Minimum Wage Increase

Effective June 1, 2014, the minimum wage in Ontario has increased to $11.00 per hour. The student minimum wage is now $10.30 per hour and the liquor services minimum wage is now $9.55 per hour.

Health and Safety Deadline

Effective July 1, 2014, all Ontario employers are required to ensure that their employees have received mandatory safety awareness training under the Occupational Health & Safety Awareness and Training Regulation.

New Leave of Absences for Ontario Employees

On April 29, 2014, Bill 21 received Royal Assent. It provides employees with the following additional leaves of absence:

1. Family Caregiver Leave: an employee is entitled to up to 8 weeks' unpaid leave per year to provide care and support to an immediate family member who has a serious medical condition.
2. Critically Ill Child Care Leave: an employee with at least six months' service is entitled to an unpaid leave of absence of up to 52 weeks to care for a critically ill child. The leave may be extended for an additional 52 weeks if the child remains critically ill.
3. Crime-related Child Death or Disappearance Leave: an employee is entitled to an unpaid leave of absence of up to 104 weeks if their child dies as a result of a crime. An employee is also entitled to an unpaid leave of up to 52 weeks if their child disappears as a result of a crime. ■