

Bad Faith Claims Against Insurers in Canada

Date: August 01, 1999

Lawyers You Should Know: Roderick Winsor

A Comprehensive review of Canadian law relating to first and third party bad faith claims against insurers, and the practical considerations involved in making or defending such claims. Revised August, 1999.

[Due to the length of this paper, we have made only the table of contents available for downloading. A copy of the complete paper may be obtained by e-mail request to the author.