PRACTICE AREAS

- Corporate & Commercial

With 30+ years of experience working in Corporate law for large firms, John possesses a wealth of knowledge in corporate due diligence searches and corporate filings. Whether lawyers have a request for full corporate searches or a basic bankruptcy search, members of the firm have come to expect efficient and reliable results from John.

John handles requests ranging from corporate/business name searches to PPSA, Writs, Bankruptcy, Bank Act, as well as railway car and corporate existence searches. He assists on most of the firm's corporate filings and PPSA filings, and handles all searches from other Canadian provinces as well as US searches in various states. During his tenure in the industry, John has built relationships with many of the corporate registry examiners and managers at various ministry offices. He nurtures these relationships, which enable him to get prompt and accurate answers to difficult filing questions that deviate from standard regulations.
