Dana is an accomplished legal professional with two decades of experience in the legal industry. She was born and raised in Romania, and earned her law degree from the University of Bucharest, Faculty of Law. Dana practiced law for four years in both the private and public sector before immigrating to Canada and joining Blaney McMurtry's Insurance Litigation Group in 2003.

Dana is highly skilled in working with large amounts of documentary evidence, assisting the group with documentary review and analysis of complex and document intensive insurance files. Over the years Dana has provided support to the firm's litigators in defending extensive coverage matters, class actions, bad faith allegations, production liability claims, property damage disputes, and personal injury matters. She is also an experienced user of litigation software platforms.
