

Coverage for Social Engineering Fraud Takes its Place Among the Required Coverage for Canadian Business

Date: January 16, 2017

Claims Canada Magazine

David Wilson, Chris McKibbin and Zack Garcia had their article “Coverage for Social Engineering Fraud Takes its Place Among the Required Coverage for Canadian Business” published in the January 2017 edition of Claims Canada magazine. The article discusses different types of social engineering frauds and comments on the impact of the Fifth Circuit’s recent Apache decision. A copy of the article is available here.
