Blaney McMurtry LLP

NEWS

Blaney McMurtry Announces Four New Partners

Date: February 01, 2017

Blaney McMurtry LLP is proud to announce that four associates have become partners of the firm.

Varoujan Arman is a member of the firm's Commercial Litigation Group. Known among his clients and colleagues as a prompt, dependable and fearless advocate, Varoujan is equally as persuasive in the boardroom as he is in the courtroom. Clients with matters ranging from shareholder disputes and oppression claims, debt collection and enforcement of foreign judgments to construction law, lease disputes, regulatory matters, and professional negligence claims benefit from Varoujan's practical and cost-effective approach to litigation.

Jessica Grant is a member of the Insurance Litigation Group. With a litigation practice focusing on personal injury, professional negligence and defence of public authorities, Jessica is a strategic problem solver, dedicated to serving her clients' best interests and bringing a practical approach to the law. Besides being a persuasive advocate before the Ontario Superior Court of Justice, Jessica has been successful achieving excellent results for her clients at mediations and settlement conferences. She welcomes the opportunity to deal with conflicts head on and in a productive manner.

Jasmine Samra is a member of the Corporate & Commercial Group. On a secondment to a corporate client early in her career, Jasmine developed a broad and integrated perspective on business issues as the company's sole in-house corporate counsel. Today, Jasmine's practice focuses on corporate and commercial law and mergers and acquisitions. She has acted for companies in connection with share and asset purchase transactions, amalgamations and tax driven corporate reorganizations. Jasmine also provides advice on a wide range of corporate and commercial law matters relating specifically to a number of industries, including financial services, pharmaceutical, manufacturing, engineering, consulting, advertising and consumer products.

Tobin Horton is a member of the firm's Insurance Litigation Group. His personal injury practice focuses on defending claims involving motor vehicle accidents, tavern liability, occupiers' liability, product liability and professional negligence. He also manages property damage cases which deal with issues of negligent design and construction defects. Tobin prides himself on his ability to design practical strategies that result in quick and effective resolution for his clients, and is adept at employing the best strategy to maximize his clients' advantages while minimizing their risks.

Congratulations to our new partners!

View the announcement here.

PEOPLE

- Varoujan Arman

PRACTICES

- Commercial Litigation
- Corporate & Commercial
- Insurance Litigation