Blaneys Congratulates Lexpert Rising Star Varoujan Arman

Date: November 25, 2021

Blaneys is delighted to announce that partner Varoujan Arman has been selected as a 2021 Lexpert® Rising Star: Leading Lawyers Under 40. Varoujan was chosen as a winner based on a competitive, industry wide, national nomination process. The award was handed out last night in at a virtual gala ceremony.

Varoujan was described as a skilled advocate frequently involved in court proceedings, as being on the leading edge of practice during the pandemic, and as regularly sought out by new clients. Other comments included: He is a talented negotiator and excellent at finding alternatives to disputes. He is an effective communicator both inside and outside of the firm, and he represents all the admirable qualities one wants to see in a responsible professional filled with integrity. Finally, it was said that beyond arguing novel legal issues, Varoujan has been able to help shape the legal profession and encourage access to justice as an elected Member-at-Large of the OBA Civil Litigation Section Executive.

Congratulations Varoujan!
