

Blaneys Recognized With Three Thought Leadership Awards

Date: May 29, 2023

Blaneys was recognized by Mondaq, a syndication platform that aggregates thought leadership insights from professional services firms, with three Thought Leadership Awards. The awards are given to authors that contributed one of the top three most-read articles in Canada for that subject area in the past six months.

Lea Nebel and Varoujan Arman are the recipients of the Real Estate and Construction award for their article, Construction Liens and Adjudication Orders: The Court Weighs In On Having To "Pay Twice."

Christopher McClelland and Sarah Mills were the recipients of the Arbitration & Dispute Resolution award for their article, What Employers Need To Know About Recent Legal Developments Relating To Employment Contracts.

Summer Xia (edited by Lou Brzezinski) was the recipient of the Fin Tech award for her article, Involved In A Cryptocurrency Dispute? Powerful Civil Remedies Available To Ontario Individuals.

Congratulations to all the winners!

PEOPLE

- Varoujan Arman
- Christopher McClelland
- Sarah Mills