Blaney McMurtry LLP

NEWS

Blaney McMurtry Announces Three New Partners - 2025

Date: February 19, 2025

Blaneys is proud to announce that three associates have become partners of the firm.

Angelique Bedford is a member of the firm's Corporate & Commercial group. She has built a diverse practice focused on various corporate and commercial matters, including mergers and acquisitions, commercial transactions, commercial leasing, and general corporate matters. She is a Certified Information Privacy Professional in Canada and regularly provides advice regarding privacy laws and regulations to her clients.

Ned Bozalo is a member of the firm's Insurance Litigation group. His practice is focused on complex Commercial General Liability, occupier's liability, property and casualty, motor vehicle accidents, and municipal liability litigation.

Matthew Mariani is a member of the firm's Insurance Litigation group. He is a passionate litigator who has built a practice focused on professional negligence, personal injury, product liability, occupiers' liability, property damage claims, and construction claims. He frequently appears before the Superior Court of Justice.

Congratulations to our new partners!

PEOPLE

- Angelique Bedford
- Ned Bozalo
- Matthew Mariani