

Blaney McMurtry Recognized With Mondaq Thought Leadership Award

Date: May 28, 2025

Two Blaneys lawyers have been recognized with a Thought Leadership Award by Mondaq, a syndication platform that aggregates thought leadership insights from professional services firms. The awards are given to authors that contributed one of the top three most-read articles in Canada for that subject area in the past six months.

Christopher McClelland and Maria Kotsopoulos are the recipients of the Employment and HR award for their article, New Ontario ESA Requirements Regarding Pay Transparency, Job Postings And More Coming In 2025 And 2026.

They also ranked third in the Technology category for the same article.

Congratulations, Chris and Maria!
