2023

EDUCATION

- LL.M., University of Toronto, 2021
- LL.B. (Honours), City St George's, University of London, 2020

PRACTICE AREAS

- Family Law

Thomas practises family law and advises clients on complex and often sensitive matters involving parenting, support, property, and domestic agreements. He brings a calm, steady presence to his work and approaches difficult situations with clarity and sound judgment.

He is focused on resolution wherever possible and works toward outcomes that are practical, efficient, and sustainable. Whether negotiating agreements or preparing for court, Thomas remains measured, strategic, and attentive to the details that matter.

Thomas has a particular interest in legal process and systems. He has delivered CPDs on legal technology and regularly looks for ways to make legal work more efficient, consistent, and client-centred.

He volunteers regularly with Lawyers Feed the Hungry in Toronto, assisting with meal service for members of the community.
