EDUCATION

- J.D., University of Melbourne, 2023
- B.A., York University, 2019

PRACTICE AREAS

- Family Law

Angelo is a dedicated family law practitioner with experience handling a wide variety of issues, including support claims, property division and equalization of net family property, and parenting disputes. He approaches each client's matter with empathy, integrity, and a relentless work ethic.

Angelo has successfully represented clients before various courts, including in contested custody proceedings, high-asset divorce matters, and sensitive support and property disputes.

During his time at Melbourne Law, Angelo served on the Executive Committee of the Sports and entertainment Board and was actively involved in the school's international peer mentorship and orientation program.
