EDUCATION

- University of Ottawa

Marian is a second-year law student at the University of Ottawa Faculty of Law, where she is currently enrolled in the French Common Law program. She is bilingual and can service clients in both English and French.

Marian has obtained extensive work experience throughout her academic career. Prior to law school, Marian worked in the broadcast and media technology sector, where she gained considerable experience in corporate operations and commercial contracts. During her 1L summer, Marian worked at one of Canada's largest privately owned technology companies, where she developed a strong understanding of privacy and technology law. She is also an active member in her community and organizes various charitable events.

Beyond her academic and professional experience, Marian is an accomplished pianist who has received conservatory training. In her free time, Marian enjoys home cooking and attending hot yoga.
