

Shawn Wolfson - Excellence That No Longer Stays Quiet

Date: July 06, 2026

Lawyers You Should Know: Shawn Wolfson

Blaney McMurtry is proud to share that our Managing Partner, Shawn Wolfson, has been featured in Canadian Lawyer Magazine's article, "Excellence That No Longer Stays Quiet." The feature explores the firm's evolution, its continued growth, and the values that have shaped its success while maintaining the collaborative culture our clients and lawyers know today.

The article highlights how Blaney McMurtry has built its reputation through exceptional client service, long standing relationships, and a commitment to attracting and developing talented lawyers across a wide range of practice areas. It also reflects on the firm's thoughtful approach to growth, balancing innovation with the personal service that has been at the heart of the firm for decades.

Under Shawn's leadership, Blaney McMurtry continues to strengthen its position as one of Ontario's leading full service law firms while remaining focused on delivering practical, business minded legal advice tailored to each client's needs.

Read the full Canadian Lawyer feature to learn more about Blaney McMurtry's journey and the vision shaping its future.