

Blaneys Partner Elected to Executive of CBA - International Law Section

Date: August 10, 2012

Henry Chang, Partner at Blaney McMurtry and co-chair of the firm's International Trade and Business Group, has been elected as member of the Executive of the Canadian Bar Association \(CBA\) Section of International Law, for the 2012-2013 term.

The Section of International Law deals with any aspect of International Law, its development and application in domestic law, that is of special interest to Canada, such as international environmental law, the actions of United Nations and other international organizations the field of international law, international legal conventions, international economic law and international trade and business transactions. Visit http://www.cba.org/cba/Sections\_International/main/ for more information.

PRACTICES

- International Trade and Business