PRIVACY LAW IN CANADA: OBLIGATIONS AND RISKS IN THE CYBER AGE
Dina L. Maxwell

Review of insureds' obligations with respect to the collection, use, disclosure and protection of data, and the liability that can arise in the event of a data breach or unauthorized access to data.

10:55 - 11:15 a.m.
CYBER RISK MANAGEMENT: BEST PRACTICES FOR INSURED
David Ma

Overview of cyber risks, the types of losses associated with such risks and best practices to address them.

11:15 - 11:35 a.m.
CYBER LIBEL: THE TANGLED WEB OF INTERNET DEFAMATION
Sheldon Inkol

The Internet has made the world a smaller place. It has also drastically increased the risk of claims for defamation. What is defamation? Who is liable for libel? Can a claim be defended? What are the potential damages? And how has the Internet changed the rules?

11:35 - 11:55 a.m.
COMPUTER FRAUD AND FUNDS TRANSFER FRAUD
Christopher McKibbin

Analysis of the scope of Computer Fraud and Funds Transfer Fraud coverages in Fidelity and Commercial Crime policies. What constitutes the "use" of a computer? Whose computer must be involved? What constitutes a "direct loss" in the computer fraud context?

11:55 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.
COVERAGE ISSUES IN INFORMATION AND NETWORK SECURITY CLAIMS
David R. Mackenzie and Dominic T. Clarke

Information and network security breach claims raise many coverage issues under numerous forms of coverage. David Mackenzie and Dominic Clarke will review key coverage exposures under first party, third party and cyber-risk forms.

12:30 - 2:00 p.m.
Complimentary Lunch
